OAKLAND UNIVERSITY LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Oakland University resides on the ancestral, traditional, and contemporary lands of the Anishinaabe, known as the Three Fires Confederacy, comprised of the Ojibwe, Odawa, and Potawatomi. The land was ceded in the 1807 Treaty of Detroit and makes up southeast Michigan.

In recognizing the history and respecting the sovereignty of Michigan's Indian Nations, Oakland University honors the heritage of Indigenous communities and their significant role in shaping the course of this region. Further, we recognize the wrongs done to those forcibly removed from their Homelands and commit to fostering an environment of inclusion that is responsive to the needs of First Peoples through our words, policies, and actions.

The preservation and perpetuation of customs and traditions of Indigenous nations are essential to our shared cultural heritage. A deep understanding of Native peoples' past and present informs the teaching, research, and community engagement of the university in its ongoing effort to elevate the dignity of all people and serve as shared stewards of the land.

OAKLAND UNIVERSITY MOTTO

The motto of Oakland University, “Seguir Virtute E. Canoscenza,” which is incorporated in its seal, has a distinguished origin, Canto XXVI, line 120, of Dante’s Inferno.

These are the final words of Ulysses’ great speech to his men urging them to sail on and on in pursuit of knowledge and experience of the world — even beyond the pillars of Hercules, traditionally the frontier and limit of legitimate exploration.

This is the three-line stanza:

Considerate la vostra semenza

Fatti non foste a viver come bruti

Ma per seguir virtute e canoscenza

Consider your birth

You were not made to live like brutes

But to follow courage and knowledge

Message from the President

Congratulations to the Oakland University Class of 2024! We are so proud of what you have accomplished.

Today’s commencement ceremony could be considered as the “finish line.” In reality, the degree bestowed is a rite of passage – and a “commencement” is not the end, but a beginning.

While you have come to the culmination of your “academic journey,” think of today as the first step on your career path, whether that leads into the private- or public-sector, or graduate studies and beyond. Whatever your chosen course, your education and pursuit of knowledge will illuminate the path that leads to making your dreams a reality.

During your journey through life, know this: You are ready to succeed. Your academic, social, and cultural experiences at Oakland have prepared you to contribute to a diverse, rapidly changing, and increasingly global world.

May you remember fondly your days at Oakland University, and the people who have played a part in making you the person you are today.

On behalf of the faculty and staff at Oakland University, we applaud you on your graduation and wish you success in all your endeavors.

I look forward to keeping up with you in the days ahead.

Ora Hirsch Pescovitz, MD
President

Message from the Provost

I have the profound honor of congratulating the class of 2024! As you begin the next chapter of your life, please take a moment to reflect on what you have learned at Oakland University, the many experiences you have had, and the lifelong friends you have made. You are now part of the OU fabric, for it is with each graduate, thread by thread, that we weave the unique historic tapestry that has become Oakland University.

The class of 2024 is, without doubt, the most special and historic of our graduate classes, for each of you demonstrated the infallible Grizzly spirit, withstanding unforeseeable odds to succeed!

As you leave Oakland, please continue to protect your health and wellness and that of those around you, and never lose sight of the strong set of values that make you the success story you already are. I wish you unparalleled success and hope you stay connected to our beloved university. We give great thanks to you and your families for choosing Oakland and look forward to learning about your outstanding future endeavors!

Britt Rios-Ellis, M.S., Ph.D.
Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost

MACE AND PRESIDENT'S MEDALLION

In medieval times, a mace was used in warfare. The mace is one of the oldest traditions in academe dating back to the early 1400's when it transitioned from warfare to ceremonial use. Considered a symbol of the University itself, the scepter mace is carried by the University marshal during commencement, convocation and other ceremonial events to signify the arrival of the faculty processional. Oakland's mace, created in 1994, was crafted by jeweler and OU alumnus, Paul Haig and designer Robert Dobbie of P.R. Haig Jewelers in Rochester.

The 30-inch long, approximately 8-pound mace has a white oak handle trimmed with sterling silver ribbon. A black obsidian disk on top is ringed with silver and is inscribed with the University motto. Obsidian is a natural black glass formed by the earth. On each side of the obsidian disk, there is a 14k yellow gold sail. On the base of the handle, a gold oak tree was modeled after a live tree on campus. The clean, straightforward design of the mace reflects the fact that Oakland University is a contemporary institution.

The President's Medallion, also created in 1994 by the same jeweler, is six inches in diameter and reveals the University sail, hangs on a silver chain and is worn by the president at ceremonial events. It is a permanent part of the University's president's academic regalia.

Mission

Oakland University cultivates the full potential of a diverse and inclusive community. As a public doctoral institution, we impact Michigan and the world through education, research, scholarship, and creative activity.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

An edifying note contributed by a certain anonymous doctor of philosophy.

On at least two solemn occasions during the academic calendar — spring and fall commencement — the faculty of the University publicly displays its full academic regalia and participates in the liturgy of processional and recessional, that curious coming and going that symbolizes the ceremony of commencement. The purposes of commencement are well known, but the reasons for the peculiar garb of the celebrants and their odd order of march are often as obscure to the audience as they are, in fact, to the faculty itself. This note may serve to explain academic dress and the professional pecking order it costumes.

Contemporary academics are descendants of clerical schoolmen in the universities of medieval Europe. Like the clergy, members of the bench and bar, and other learned professions, medieval scholars were clothed in heavy robes to stay warm in unheated stone buildings. Like all members of a hierarchical society, the medieval faculties rejoiced in visible insignia of rank. These outward signs of accomplishment and authority were tailored into robes. Although the need for such voluminous garments to keep the scholar from freezing is long past, the use of them as emblems of dignity remains. You will observe that all caps and gowns worn by our faculty are black, with certain exceptions. Black was the color adopted by mutual agreement among American universities at the end of the 19th century. In Europe, each University has its own distinctive gown, varying in color and cut from all others.

There are three basic academic degrees: the baccalaureate or bachelor's degree, the master's degree, and the doctorate. A special style of robe is prescribed for each. The bachelor's gown is sparsely cut, neat, but a bit skimpy and unadorned, as befits apprentices. The master's gown is still simple, but fuller, sports a sleeve of extraordinary design impossible to describe, and has a hood draped from the shoulders down the back. Once used to keep the frost from the tonsured heads of medieval clerks, the hood is solely a badge of a degree of scholarly achievement. The master's hood is small and narrow, but displays the colors of the institution that awarded the degree. If you knew the colors of American universities, you could easily identify whence came our masters. The doctoral robe is the most handsome of academic raiment. Generous of cut, of fine aristocratic stuff, it is faced with velvet chevrons on the ample sleeves. You will note that most of the velvet facings and chevrons are black, but that some are of other colors. According to personal taste, the doctor may display the color of his or her doctoral degree on the sleeves and facings: light blue for education, pink for music, apricot for nursing, orange for engineering, and many more. The royal blue of the Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) is the most commonly seen in liberal arts institutions such as Oakland. The doctor's hood is the most elegant of all academic appurtenances. Large and graceful, it is lined in satin with the colors of the University that awarded the degree and is bordered with the color of the degree itself. Most academic costumes include the square cap called a mortarboard; the doctor's tassel may be either black or gold — tassels of all other degrees are black and stringy.

To instructed eyes, the order of march in the processional and recessional reveals the standing of individuals in the institution's formal hierarchy. In the processional, the order of entrance into the hall is, quite fittingly, from most junior to most senior. The baccalaureate candidates enter first, followed successively by the masters and doctoral candidates with the whole separated from the faculty by a decent interval. In the faculty order, the instructors precede the assistant professors that in turn are followed by the associate professors. The august full professors bring up the rear. After a respectful distance come the deans who in turn are separated by a significant space from the awful majesty of the platform party, the vice president, the president, and the members of the board of trustees.

All remain standing until the board is seated. After the ceremony, the order of recessional is the reverse of the processional. The greatest dignitaries stream out first, with the artfully organized ranks of priority wallowing in their wake.

It is hoped that these notes may make more intelligible the spectacle you are witnessing today. A discerning intelligence may detect in it many clues to an understanding of the academic profession as it confronts the ambiguities of the future with ancient wisdom and dignified confidence.

About Oakland University

Oakland University was created in 1957, when the late Alfred and Matilda Wilson donated $2 million and their 1,500-acre estate to Michigan State University to begin a new college in Oakland County.

Named Michigan State University-Oakland, the new campus enrolled its first 570 students in 1959. In 1963, its name changed to Oakland University as the first class graduated with 125 students receiving diplomas. In 1970, the Michigan Legislature recognized the maturity and stature of the University by granting it autonomy, and the governor appointed Oakland University's first Board of Trustees.

From its beginnings, the University has emphasized academic quality, concentrating on providing a dynamic, student-focused learning environment with integration of liberal and professional studies by a faculty of dedicated scholar-teachers. The natural beauty of the campus, much of it still wooded and undeveloped, is enhanced by comprehensive recreational facilities and modern buildings that house the University's many academic and public service programs as well as more than 2,000 residential students.

Dedicated to preparing graduates to make meaningful and substantial contributions to the workplace, society and academia, the University is organized into eight academic units: the College of Arts and Sciences; the schools of Business Administration, Education and Human Services, Engineering and Computer Science, Health Sciences, Medicine, and Nursing; and The Honors College.

Oakland has 118 bachelor degree programs and 136 graduate degree and certificate programs. Doctorates are offered in education with concentrations in educational leadership, counseling and early childhood education; biomedical sciences with specializations in medical physics, health and environmental chemistry, and biological communication; reading education; systems and mechanical engineering; physical therapy; applied mathematical sciences; nursing practice; music education; computer science and informatics; psychology, medicine, and electrical and computer engineering.

The University is continuously adapting to meet the changing needs of students and the marketplace. New programs delivered online and on campus include master's degree programs in nursing, psychology, training and development, public health, software engineering, an Executive MBA program in health care management, and innovative Honors College courses. Business and industry partnerships provide unprecedented opportunities for advanced, hands-on learning.

Now, over 17,000 students attend classes at Oakland University each year, and the number of OU alumni has increased to more than 135,000.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT 2024

Camille Jayne

Camille Jayne has been a successful turnaround CEO of six companies over the past twenty-two years and is one of the few businesswomen who has been Chairman and CEO of a U.S. publicly traded company. She has served as a Board Director for four publicly traded, three private, and eight nonprofit companies. Camille is known for driving strategic direction, operational restructuring and creative product development to quickly deliver top and bottom-line growth. No matter the industry, she promises “to stun you with unbelievable results”, mentoring employees into leaders for sustainable success so she can move on.

Earning a BA, with distinction, from Stanford University with a double emphasis in pre-med and graphic design, she then received an MFA in design at Stanford. Craving strategic input, Camille obtained an MBA from the University of Michigan in marketing and new product development – a pivotal turning point in her career trajectory and happiness.

Camille developed her new product acumen at The Pillsbury Company; and continued at Procter and Gamble’s Vidal Sassoon division, catapulting new haircare products to number one market share.

Known for transformational success, Camille was hired by Comerica Bank as FVP of Liabilities, stagnant at $7B. She and her team did not disappoint, introducing new offerings including the first full-service banks (ComeriMarts) in supermarkets.

As SVP of Digital TV at cable giant Tele-Communications, Inc. Camille, working with CEO and media visionary John Malone, spearheaded the launch of the first digital TV service, gaining international recognition. As Chairman & CEO of Universal Electronics, Inc. she reestablished UEI to profit and a Wall Street gem, taking the stock from $5 to $50, revenue from $80M to $300M, and the global leader in three years. As Chief Executive at Bitcentral, Inc., she led the unprofitable, multimillion-dollar digital TV news software company to #1 market share, increasing revenue by 100%, and EBITDA by 1200% in 24 months.

After founding The Jayne Group consulting, to give back Camille became President of the National Association of Women Business Owners, growing the Orange County, CA chapter from smallest to largest by securing women-owned organizations as a vital market segment. She launched 501(c)(3) Women’s Business Institutes in Orange County, CA and Oakland County, MI; and taught her monthly “Bulletproof Your Success” lecture series to professionals in California and Michigan, donating all $300,000 proceeds back to charity.

Valuing education, Camille established the Jayne Scholarship Endowment at her alma mater, Cranbrook/Kingswood, to cover the majority of costs for a promising 9-12th grade girl in financial need. Jayne Scholars have gone on to Harvard, Penn, Columbia, USC, and Ohio Wesleyan.

Accolades include recognition as one of the 10 most powerful people in Orange County, CA; the Women in Business Award for S. CA; the United States National SBA Women in Business Champion; and a Tribute by Rep. David Trott on the floor of the United States House of Representatives praising her CEO work for returning The Community House nonprofit (Birmingham, MI) to financial health.

She has been a Visiting Professor in MBA programs at the University of Michigan; UC Irvine; and Oakland University. She and her husband Brad Jayne reside in California.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT 2024

Bruce Miller

Bruce Miller, along with his law firm Miller Cohen, PLC, have stood with the labor and civil rights movement as activists, advisors, and attorneys for decades. Miller, who is 96 years young, has been successful in establishing the right of retired workers to draw workers' compensation benefits. He represented employees in a case against the Ex-Cell-O company that took 12 years to litigate and resulted in awards to the plaintiffs more than 3 million dollars. He won an award in an arbitration case for 14 million dollars. He has also won other cases in the millions. He has been involved in litigation throughout the country on behalf of unions and worker rights. He has been listed as Best Lawyers in the United States and is a Fellow of the College of Labor and Employment Lawyers. He has been honored by either serving or having served as General Counsel of the Metro AFL-CIO, the Michigan AFL-CIO, Labor's Hall of Fame, The A. Phillip Randolph Institute, the Sam Fishman Memorial Scholarship Fund and sat on the Lawyers Advisory Panel to the AFL-CIO.

In the fight for civil rights as attorney for the Detroit Branch NAACP, he was successful in protecting citizens from police abuse, caused the first agreement for goals and timetables at First Federal Savings and Loan Association resulting in the first integration of the downtown banking community, outlawed the notorious Poindexter Homeowner's Ordinance which was designed to segregate the City of Detroit and won many other fights and victories in the struggle for civil rights.

Standing with labor and the civil rights community, Miller has held several positions in the Michigan Democratic Party: precinct delegate, Treasurer 13th Congressional District; Chairman, of Wayne County Democratic Committee; Officer at Large of the Michigan Democratic Party and member of the Rules Committee at National Democratic Conventions.

He has authored law review articles, written a pro-labor column at the Detroit News until the strike, and lectured on matters near and dear to the labor and civil rights community.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT 2024

Nora Chapa Mendoza

Nora Chapa Mendoza was born in 1932 in Weslaco, Texas as a first-generation Chicana. Her career began and was established in Detroit. Nora's artwork is extremely diverse and primarily deals with Hispanic and Indian affairs, Immigration, and Women. Her beautiful abstracts speak for themselves!

Internationally respected fine artist Nora Chapa Mendoza has devoted her life to art and the expression and promotion of human rights. Her social and political themes of labor, revolution, and freedom are derived from Mexican heritage and the experiences of a twentieth-century Hispanic artist working in urban Detroit. Her series on the plight of migrant farm workers and their struggle for equality are featured in many publications.

Nora began a five-decade-long career as a gallery owner exhibiting her work, as well as promoting and supporting other Latino Artists. In the early 1980s, she was appointed vice chair of the New Detroit Arts Committee. She was a cofounder of Nuestras Artes en Michigan and a founding member of the Michigan Hispanic/Cultural Art Association, and a member of the Latino Caucus of Southwest Detroit. In 1999, she was the liaison to the Michigan Latino Arts and Culture Initiative, a collaboration of Casa de Unidad, the Michigan Council for the Arts, and the Michigan Department of Education. Nora helped pave the way for Hispanic Art today!

Mendoza's work is in many important private, corporate, and archival collections. She was commissioned by Cesar Chavez to do a series of paintings to support his Children of the Fields program. Mendoza's archives are in the Smithsonian and her patrons include the Ford Foundation, General Motors, Detroit Edison, Blue Cross Blue Shield, and CBS among many others. Nora was also chosen as the 2024 Kresge Eminent Artist. This prestigious annual award recognizes the extraordinary lifetime achievements and contributions of one metro Detroit artist.

Mendoza has been deeply involved with, and supportive of many Hispanic and Native American groups. Many of these issues are depicted in her artwork. She has exhibited nationally and internationally in solo and group exhibitions including a presentation, a workshop, and a large exhibition of her work at Oakland University in September of 2019. She also has numerous television and radio interviews to her credit.

Nora Mendoza is a master of all mediums. Her paintings range from very small pieces to extensively large pieces, and she works with a variety of materials, primarily oil and acrylic, but also a wide range of mixed media.

Nora has shared her gift with many students over many decades, doing workshops and presentations for many underprivileged students throughout Michigan and internationally. "I believe each and every one of us is given a gift to develop to our highest potential. It is not a gift to keep but a gift to give back! I hope to leave a legacy to our children, our children's children, and generations to come." Here is true confirmation of Mendoza's dedication to her belief that art can change the world.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT 2024

Eric Hemenway

Eric Hemenway is an Anishnaabe/Odawa from Cross Village, Michigan. Eric is the Director of Repatriation, Archives, and Records for the Little Traverse Bay Bands (LTBB) of Odawa Indians. Eric oversees the management, collection, and preservation of historic documents and materials for the tribe. These materials are used to support LTBB government functions and its citizens. Eric works on numerous educational initiatives that include, but are not limited to museum exhibits, media, curriculum development, publications, historical interpretation, signage, web content, and presentations. Collaborations on exhibits and programs have included the National Park Service, the state of Michigan, Mackinac State Historic Parks, Emmet County, Welt Museum Wien Vienna, Austria, and the Harbor Springs History Museum, as well as other museums. Educational partnerships include Harbor Springs Public Schools, Charlevoix Public Schools, Western Michigan University, Amherst College, Brown University, Newberry Library, University of Michigan, Michigan State University, Harvard, Yale, and Aquinas College. Eric also has extensive work experience under the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act, working on over thirty successful repatriation claims and authoring a manual on performing repatriation work.

He currently sits on boards for the Michigan Historical Commission, Central Michigan University Clarke Library, Michigan Historical Society, King House Association, and Little Traverse Conservancy. Eric is a former board member of the Michigan Humanities Council, Emmet County Historical Commission, National NAGRPA Review Committee, Harbor Springs Historical Museum, and the Michigan Commission on the Commemoration of the Bicentennial of the War of 1812. He is the recipient of the Grand Rapids Public Museum Casey Award 2010, Harbor Springs Chamber of Commerce Community Service Award 2015, and Michigan Humanities Council Humanities Champion of the Year 2019.

Outside of work, Eric spends his time with family and friends. The family includes two dogs, Sammy the Samoyed and Prim the Pitbull. Eric also spends as much time outdoors in beautiful Northern Michigan, exploring trails, two tracks, beaches, and generally anywhere off the beaten path. Good food and conversations are appreciated, as well as meeting new people and seeing new places. Eric would like to acknowledge all the people and experiences that have helped him along his path, as well as being Anishnaabe in the lands of the ancestors.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT 2024

Daniel M. Skovronsky, M.D., Ph.D.

Dan Skovronsky is the chief scientific officer of Eli Lilly and Company and president of Lilly Research Laboratories with responsibility for Lilly's research and development pipeline across therapeutic areas. Under Dan's scientific leadership, Lilly created the world's first monoclonal antibodies to fight COVID-19; led the industry in advancing science for Alzheimer's disease diagnosis, treatment, and hopefully someday prevention; created the first dual-acting incretin that is revolutionizing the fight against diabetes and obesity; and advanced gene therapies with the potential to restore hearing to those born with genetic forms of hearing loss. These advances have propelled Lilly to become the most valuable healthcare company in the world.

Dan joined Lilly in 2010 when the company acquired Avid Radiopharmaceuticals Inc., where he had been CEO since founding the company in 2004. Dan completed his residency training in pathology and fellowship training in neuropathology at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. He received his M.D. from the Perelman School of Medicine, University of Pennsylvania, in 2001, and his Ph.D. in neuroscience from the University of Pennsylvania in 2000. Dan earned a Bachelor of Science in molecular biophysics and biochemistry from Yale University in 1994.

ALUMNI SPEAKERS

Stephen Davis

Born and raised on the Eastside of Detroit, Michigan, Stephen Davis graduated from Cass Tech High School in 2002 and enrolled in Oakland University where he decided to major in Business Marketing. Graduating from Oakland University in 2006 with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration and a Major in Marketing, Stephen set out to have a career in the business world. After spending years in corporate America while watching countless success stories online of people having an idea and then working to create their own companies, Stephen knew his path was to be an entrepreneur.

After trying and failing at numerous startups, Stephen found his opportunity in 2021 when he purchased a roundtrip flight from Detroit to Phoenix, AZ. Looking at the size of his carry-on, he thought that if you just take off the wheels of the carry-on suitcase, it probably could fit as a personal item and avoid the costly baggage fees. TAKE OFF Luggage was launched in January of 2022 and has been taking off ever since. In just 2 short years, the company has gained millions of views on social media, made millions in sales, and featured in countless publications and was even named one of Oprah's Favorite Things 2023.

Dr. Christopher Delgado

Dr. Christopher Delgado serves as the Superintendent of Farmington Public Schools. After graduating from Michigan State University, he began his career as a high school and middle school Spanish teacher in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Six years later he returned to Michigan as a high school Spanish teacher in Birmingham, Michigan, followed by 18 years in administration, including roles as high school associate principal, middle school principal and deputy superintendent. He completed his Masters of Educational Administration from Michigan State University, and his Educational Specialist and Doctorate from Oakland University.

He has been married for 29 years to his wife, Leslie, who is an elementary teacher in Birmingham. They have three children: Antonio, a graduate of Michigan State; Casandra, a graduate of New York University and law student at Columbia University; and Dominic, a student at Henry Ford College's Culinary Institute.

Mackenna Greene

Mackenna Greene is an Oakland University graduate with a Bachelor's Degree in Music Education. She graduated in 2021 with academic and musical honors, and during her time at OU she participated in multiple ensembles, ran weekend saxophone ensembles for local students, as well as started a business - local music school Red Piano Music Studio. Post graduation, Mackenna continues to run Red Piano Music Studio, and promote the business through giving presentations to Oakland business classes, partnerships with local schools, and continual expansion in the metro-Detroit area. Red Piano now has multiple locations, employing 25 current and recently graduated Oakland students, and teaches every age and instrument to students from around the Oakland county area.

ALUMNI SPEAKERS

Tanya Griffith

Tanya Griffith serves as the Senior Director for Corporate and Foundation Relations for the University of Michigan. A native of Detroit's west side, Tanya fervently champions education as she was the first in her immediate family to earn a high school diploma, and the first from both sides of her family to successfully complete a college degree, graduating Summa Cum Laude with a Bachelor's in Business Administration from Northwood University.

Tanya has led public relations and fund development in various Detroit nonprofits and served six years in the role of Director for Corporate Relations and DEI Partnerships at Oakland University before her tenure at the University of Michigan. In 2022, she earned a graduate degree in Higher Education Leadership from Oakland University, solidifying her commitment to inclusion, diversity, equity, and access.

Tanya's social responsibilities extend to serving on several community boards, including Cornerstone Schools, the Pretty Hearts Foundation, chair of the Association of Fundraising Professionals Nominating Committee, and the Ascension Foundation. Her notable achievements include graduating from Leadership Detroit Class XXXVIII, Leadership Macomb XXIV, and being a four-time recipient of the Reeher BlackBaud Prime Officer Award – a national recognition awarded to high-performing fundraising professionals. Recently, she was named one of the 50 most notable and influential women in DE&I by Career Mastered.

Tanya currently resides in Southfield, Michigan with her husband of 31 years Fabian, their adult daughters Mya and Marie, son-in-law Gabriel, granddaughter Hazel, and their furry companion, Mozart.

Wendy Holmes

Currently holding the position of Assistant Vice President, Diversity Consultant, at Comerica Bank, Wendy Holmes' journey is characterized by over a decade and a half of dedication, innovation, and tireless advocacy for inclusive practices in the corporate sphere. An alumna of Oakland University, Wendy Holmes holds a B.A. in Communications, a foundation that has equipped her to navigate and excel in the nuanced world of corporate communication and marketing. For the past four years at Comerica Bank, Wendy has overseen an expansive portfolio that includes DEI employee engagement, DEI strategic partnerships, High School Talent Pathways, and DEI benchmarking.

Wendy received her Diversity Professional Certification through the National Diversity Council in 2021. She is a revered member of the Advisory Board of the Michigan Diversity Council, reflecting her influence in shaping diversity practices within the state. Additionally, her passion for education and health is evident as she served on the board of the Oakland University School of Health Sciences from 2021-2023.

Before venturing into the DEI space, Wendy spent over 15 years immersed in the dynamic world of Experiential Marketing and Events, working with global giants like Sony music and Vitamin Water and also partnering with Jack Morton agency on the Buick brand. Beyond her professional accomplishments, Wendy actively volunteers with organizations like the Salvation Army and Focus Hope ensuring she gets back to the community that has given her so much.

OAKLAND UNIVERSITY FIGHT SONG

Fight, fight, fight for Oakland
Fight the whole game long
Fight, fight, fight for Oakland
Keep the Grizzlies strong.

While the battle rages
And our work's not done
We will fight for glory
'Til the game is won

Go Black!

Go Gold!

Go Fight!

Fight, fight, fight for Oakland
Fight the whole game long
Fight, fight, fight for Oakland
Keep the Grizzlies strong.

When the game is over
And the story's told
O-U will claim vic'try
We're the black and gold! O-U!

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Debra A. Pruent

Debra A. Pruent is retired from the German research and data-science company GfK, SE where she was COO and a member of the Management Board. She became a GfK Management Board member in 2008 and was the first American and only second woman to ever be named to the Board. She also served on the Boards of the Italy, Austria, China, and India companies which were part of the GfK global portfolio.

Debbie graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Wayne State University in 1983 with two Bachelor of Science degrees in Mathematics and Computer Science. She began her research career at the General Motors Research Laboratories and, during this time, earned her MS in Applied Statistics from Oakland University. She later moved into the GM Marketing & Product Planning Staff before leaving to join automotive research start-up Allison-Fisher International (AFI) in 1991 as a partner. She eventually became CEO of AFI which was sold to NOP World in 2001. She was CEO of the NOP World global Automotive Sector when GfK purchased NOP World in 2005. She moved to NYC to run the NA business for GfK before being named to the Management Board.

During her professional career, she built up a strong track record in research and consultancy, both on the client and the research institute side. She also has significant global M&A experience within the industry including multiple acquisitions and global integrations into GfK as they expanded their portfolio across 61 countries. She was also involved in many professional organizations including serving for 8 years on the Advertising Research Foundation's (ARF) Board of Directors in NYC spending 3 years as Chairman of their Finance Committee. She also previously taught Statistics at Oakland University.

Since retirement Debbie has become actively involved with several non-profits focused on addressing poverty which includes teaching the "Getting Ahead" class in Pontiac for several years and serving on a Microloan Board. She is also currently on the Graduate School Advisory Board at Oakland University and previously also served as a member of the Advisory Boards of Rebus Code in India for 4 years and UK-based WePredict for 5 years prior to its recent sale to JD Power in 2022.

Debbie and her husband Jeff VanHoorne, also an OU alumni (MS, Computer Science) who she began dating through carpooling from GM to OU during grad school, have lived in Rochester Hills since 2017 and have since become active participants and donors to Oakland University.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Telva McGruder

As the Executive Director of Global Body Manufacturing Engineering, Telva leads the next phase of transformation toward an increasingly automated and digital manufacturing approach for body and paint systems at General Motors. The team embraces technology focused on predictive analytics to run safely, sustainably, and efficiently while ensuring operational excellence, and quality for the global portfolio.

Previously, Telva was Chief Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Officer where she championed the progress toward a high performing, inclusive culture while shepherding global impact in diversity. The team fostered partnerships and initiatives that promoted equity inside and outside of the company.

Her passions for culture and sustainable solutions for people and processes fueled notable impacts while leading facility engineering, facility management and energy strategy in the GM Sustainable Workplaces organization. Earlier in her career, Telva held positions of increasing responsibility and influence within manufacturing engineering and at several manufacturing locations where she motivated teams to rethink the possible in project execution, maintenance, quality, operations, and labor negotiations. Telva earned her BS and MS degrees in Electrical Engineering from Purdue University.

Along with her professional accomplishments, Telva is dedicated to teaching and leading others inside and outside of General Motors. Telva is a member of the Executive Leadership Council. She supports diverse girls and women as a member of the Board of Directors for Girls Scouts of the USA, a member of the Catalyst Advisory Board, and a member of the Inforum Board of Directors. Her skills and passions intersect with her service as vice-chair of the advisory board for the Oakland University School of Health Sciences, a member of the external advisory board for the University of Michigan School for Environment and Sustainability, and a member of the board for Engineering Tomorrow. She is a positive, driven individual with a keen sense of what is important and greatly enjoys wonderful life experiences with her husband, son and two daughters.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Linda H. Gillum, Ph.D.

Linda Gillum, Ph.D. is nationally recognized for her contributions to the development of faculty in academic medicine. Dr. Gillum has been a leading proponent of evidence-based approaches to faculty mentorship in medical education.

In 2008, she joined Oakland University William Beaumont School of Medicine (OUWB) as the new medical school's Founding Associate Dean for Academic and Faculty Affairs and Associate Professor in the Department of Foundational Medical Studies. At OUWB she founded and secured funding for The Center for Excellence in Medical Education (CEME) to support faculty teaching. Dr. Gillum also launched OUWB's Medical Education Week, featuring nationally acclaimed speakers highlighting current and emerging topics in medical education. Dr. Gillum served as the OUWB coordinator for the Liaison Committee on Medical Education (LCME) provisional, preliminary, and full accreditation process.

Prior to joining OUWB, Dr. Gillum served for almost 20 years at the University of Michigan Medical School as a member of the faculty and Assistant Dean of Students where she was responsible for medical students, residents, and graduate student research programs which included K-awardees in the Psychiatry Department's Postdoctoral Program. She also led the Office of Faculty Affairs. Dr. Gillum served as a member of the Association of American Medical Colleges Group on Women in Medicine and Science, the American Council on Education (ACE) Women in Higher Education, the Association of American Medical Colleges Group on Diversity and Inclusion, the National Association of Minority Medical Educators, and the Association of American Medical Colleges Group on Faculty Affairs. She has been honored by the Michigan Women's Foundation and The Bates Street Society for her significant contributions that support community health and wellness, and for encouraging and nurturing STEM careers for high school students.

Dr. Gillum was elected to the Cranbrook Educational Community Board of Trustees in 2007 and was elected Chair of the Board in 2022. In addition to the Cranbrook board, she also serves on the Priority Health Board of Directors.

Dr. Gillum received her doctoral degree from the University of Massachusetts, at Amherst in neuropsychology and communication sciences (specialties in clinical and behavioral psychology). Following her doctoral degree, she later completed a Fellowship at the Massachusetts General Hospital Institute for Health Professions.

Dr. Gillum's research career has been highlighted by numerous federal and foundation-funded projects involving neuropsychology assessment, cognitive and behavioral evaluation and treatment of stroke, sickle cell, Alzheimer's, dementia, and closed-head injured patients, including cross-cultural studies in national and international clinical trials.

OAKLAND UNIVERSITY™

Alumni Association

Dear Graduates,

Congratulations on your graduation and welcome to the OU Alumni Family! You are now part of an alumni network that numbers over 135,000 strong!

I encourage you to stay in touch and remain engaged in the life of the University through the Oakland University Alumni Association. As an alum, you automatically qualify to receive the benefits available through the alumni association without membership fees. Please connect with us via LinkedIn, Facebook or Instagram or click the QR code below for more information about how to get involved.

Together, we make a difference by participating in virtual and in person events, volunteering our time, making a gift, advocating for OU, mentoring OU students, and sharing our OU pride. One of the most important things we can continue to do is support scholarships and provide opportunities that help ensure the success of the next generation of OU graduates. I hope you to continue to participate in the life of the University in a way that is meaningful for you.

On behalf of the Oakland University Alumni Association Board of Directors, thank you for all that you have done during your time here as students – you are living, breathing examples of the transformation and opportunity made possible by an Oakland University education.

Good luck in all you do as you begin this next chapter in your life.

Best Regards,

Judy Hegelund, SBA '95
Chair, OUAA Board of Directors

This program contains an unofficial list of candidates for degrees and honors for 2024. The lists are as accurate as possible; however, because of printing deadlines, names of some degree recipients may not appear, while names of degree candidates may appear even though they have not completed their degree requirements.

The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the Academic Records Office, 160 North Foundation Hall, 318 Meadow Brook Road, Rochester, Michigan 48309-4401.
